

All in for ARTcetera benefit

BILL BRETT FOR THE BOSTON GLOBE

ARTcetera at the Boston Park Plaza Castle Saturday night to benefit the AIDS Action Committee.

By Mark Shanahan and Meredith Goldstein

GLOBE STAFF OCTOBER 03, 2011

ARTcetera, the biennial art auction benefiting the AIDS Action Committee, was the place to be Saturday night. Held at the Park Plaza Castle and planned by - who else - Bryan Rafanelli, the sold-out crowd included art patrons Joyce Linde, Heidi and Scott Schuster, Jonathan Lee, Audrey Foster, Steve Corkin, gallery owners Susan Lanoue, Ellen Miller, and Arlette Kayafas, deCordova director Dennis Kois, fashionista Marilyn Riseman, Massachusetts College of Art and Design president Dawn Barrett, MassArt curator Lisa Tung, Bill and Alli Achtmeyer, artist Kyle Damon (Matt Damon's brother) and his wife, Lori, Mandarin Oriental GM Susanne Hatje, Ciara and Richard Francis, Boston Cyberarts founder George Fifield, Dan Mullin, Jorge and Barbara Quiroga, Ali and Betty Riaz, Ashley and Paul Bernon, the event's cochairs, Barbara Lee and Bill Emery, AIDS Action CEO Rebecca Haag, and Rafanelli's partner, Mark Walsh.